CPS HUMAN RESOURCE SERVICES PROMOTES
TWO KEY EXECUTIVES
Ed Cole Named Co-Executive Director and
Jerry Greenwell Named Deputy Executive Director

SACRAMENTO, CA – July, 2002 – Ed Cole and Jerry Greenwell have recently been named Co-Executive Director and Deputy Executive Director, respectively, at CPS Human Resource Services, a nationwide human resource testing and consulting agency headquartered in Sacramento, California. Ed Cole now shares the role of Executive Director with Pam Stewart who has been the Executive Director at CPS for the past 14 years.

In his new role as Co-Executive Director, Cole shares responsibility for the organization's business development and growth strategies as well as internal oversight of financial and staffing structures. Prior to being named Co-Executive Director, Ed Cole served as CPS' Deputy Executive Director for the last 14 years.

Greenwell has served as Client Services Manager for test services at CPS for the past 5 years. In his new role as Deputy Executive Director, Greenwell is charged with assisting the Executive Directors with business development and organizational growth as well as overseeing the operations and management support services, which include the information services division and financial systems operations.
